Dear Mr. Kerr:

This is our final response to your March 25, 2011, Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request communication records produced November 18, 2010 to the present, between the U.S. House of Representatives, USDA, Feld Entertainment, and Olsson, Frank, and Weeda regarding the November 18, 2010, inspection at Ringling Brothers Blue Unit in Chicago. Your request was received March 25, 2011, and assigned case number FOIA 11-359.

Agency employees conducted a search of their files and located 304 pages that are the subject of your request. A line by line review of the pages, determined that 52 pages can be released in part. Portions of these pages have been redacted and/or withheld under the FOIA Exemptions 5, 6, and 7(c).

Under Exemption 5, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b) (5), we have withheld 119 pages of emails/correspondence between subordinate employees and their supervisors, as well as drafts, and communications between Agency attorneys and program staff, which consist of opinions, recommendations, and other reflections of staff thinking integral to the pre-decisional, deliberative process. Accordingly, these pages are exempt from disclosure as the Government is permitted to protect pre-decisional material and attorney – client communications.

Exemption 6, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b) (6) protects information from disclosure when its release would cause a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. Specifically, the names of Ringling Brothers employees are withheld. Along with this exemption, we have afforded these individuals protection under Exemption 7(C), 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(C). Exemption 7(C), 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(C), protects information compiled for law enforcement purposes, and protects personal information when disclosure "could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy

The remaining pages are duplicate copies of the aforementioned and copies of documents provided to you on April 20, 2011, and May 16, 2011.
